UNITED WAY OF NORTHERN BRITISH COLUMBIA (UWNBC) – COMMUNITY IMPACT IN QUEEN CHARLOTTE CITY

As part of UWNBC community development work, community issues were identified through research and consultation for UWNBC's 3 pillars: Successful Kids/Empowered Families, Involved Seniors and Healthy Citizens and Safe, Supportive Communities.

The Queen Charlotte City issues identified can be summarized as:

Successful Kids/ Empowered Families	Involved Seniors	Healthy Citizens and Safe, Supportive Communities
Lack of youth counselors	Need a van to link seniors to social and service supports in the community and nearby places	Need more timely access to mental health supports during the evenings, weekends and holidays
Need a broader range of youth activities		Limited wheelchair accessibility
Need more daycare		Need a day centre for recovery
Need a broader range of parenting support programs		Need more outreach supports for those in recovery
For more information please visit: www.unitedwaynbc.ca/Documents/Success_By_6_2010_2011.pdf		Need more programs for men (i.e. healthy relationships, trauma supports, etc.)

Listed on the next page are current community development, organizational capacity enhancements and community investments that begin to address the community issues identified above. With your support UWNBC will continue to assess needs and invest for change.
